August 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

Character Camp

This summer has gone by very quickly. We just finished our Character Camp or what many call Vacation Bible School. Our people worked very hard and well together. It was such a blessing to see our church labor together to reach the children in our community. Our theme for this year's Character Camp was "Giddy up Junction". Each night was well attended, and the children and teens seemed happy to be at church. Through the course of the week at Character Camp our neighbor boy who attends King's Kids finally made a decision for Christ. Many of us have been praying for his salvation. Praise the Lord! Please pray for his brother and sister as well as parents that they would come to Christ. This boy's name is Eddie, and he plays with our boys almost every week at our home.

Our Home

Soon school starts for Josiah and Jason, and Mrs. Witte is diligently getting ready to teach their classes using Abeka home schooling. The boys said that it was fun to go to school. I am glad for their good attitudes. Josiah is going into 7th grade and Jason is going into 4th grade.

This Fall

Our King's Kids program will resume on September 11th. We are looking forward to seeing the children and teens after summer break. Most of them get picked up for church because their parents don't attend. Please pray for our King's Kids and their parents. On October 4-5th, our church and Mountain View Baptist Church will be having a Pastor's Fellowship for Independent Baptist pastors in the North. Our church desires to be a blessing and encouragement to these pastors and their families. Please pray for these special services.

Yours for Christ,
Jeremy and Jennifer Witte
