Dear Pastor Hamilton:

Your recent generous contribution was received here, and we want to acknowledge it with our deep thanks and gratefulness. Your constant help undergirds the work our Lord has entrusted to us, or as the Scripture above says, “the glorious things that were done by him.” That was about 2,000 years ago, and it’s still 100% valid for our days. Friends such as you contribute toward this glorifying of the Lord, so we are enabled to send forth this wonderful truth, this light into the darkness.

We must emphasize this point, for spiritual darkness is indeed prevalent throughout the world today. The dark powers at work are targeting one particular entity, and that is His Church. Why? Because we are the light of the world. That light needs to be proclaimed. Actually, this is a command of our Lord: “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 5:16). We note that it’s not our “good works” in the first place but our “light.” And in that light, people “see your good works.” That is the proper succession. The works you are doing—in this case, with your contribution—are part of letting our light shine in our surroundings, and by extension the entire world.

May the Lord, whom you love, endue you with His boldness to share the glorious things that Jesus did, is doing today, and will do in the future.

Thankfully United in His Service,
